"A History of Grande Cache"

Jan. 31 at the Tourism Centre. Join us for a free presentation by the Historical Society from 7-9 pm. The evening will include an informative talk highlighted by slides, PowerPoint, and videos. It will cover pre-history up to present day. There will also be a display of maps and books, for which the Society won the Alberta Heritage Award for in 2005.

SAVE THE DATE:

MULTIPLEX OPEN HOUSE

Thurs, Feb. 12 7:00 p.m.
Tourism & Interpretive Centre

View drawings and a model of the proposed facility, information on the importance of recreation, the budget, and the proposed methodology to pay for it.

BROWN BAG VIDEO CONFERENCE SESSION: OPEN HOUSE

Thurs, Feb 5 12:00 - 1:00 pm
Tourism & Interpretive Centre

Join us to experience a video conferencing training session. We will be hosting an Open House over the lunch hour to watch a Brown Bag Session on "Web Design that Works." This will not be a participatory session - we will only be able to view the course on screen, allowing people to come and go throughout the hour to check it out. Stop by and check out the new video conferencing equipment and learn more about upcoming sessions!

Business training sessions are brought to you by the Alberta Business Link, Community Futures West Yellowhead, and the Town of Grande Cache.
