FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Town of Grande Cache has confirmed their entertainment for Deathfest 2009, July 31st - August 3rd. We are excited to add a bigger and better Saturday Night Killer Concert from past years. This year's Saturday Night Killer Concert will feature Canadian musical acts Default and Thornley. Sunday Night's Killer Concert will boast another all-Canadian show featuring three-time Aboriginal People's Choice Award winner Shane Yellowbird, Canadian Country Music Award winner Aaron Lines, and 2009 Juno Award Nominees the Trews!

Mayor Louise Krewusik says that they are "thrilled to showcase Canadian talent of this caliber in our little mountain community. This is our third annual Deathfest festival in conjunction with the Canadian Death Race, and each year the excitement grows as we announce the entertainment."

Other entertainment confirmed include the hilarious antics of Major Conrad Flapps, "Airman Extraordinaire" and the world's only human airplane, and Scrap Arts Music, an earth-friendly, Vancouver-based company that creates an unforgettable percussion experience using kinetic instruments skillfully crafted from industrial scraps. These shows are free to the public! YTV's "Weird on Wheels" (W.O.W!) will also be rolling into Grande Cache with loads of excitement for the kids to help beat the summer blues. There will be lots of games and prizes throughout the weekend.

This August Long Weekend will be filled with tons of games, rides, vendors, roving characters, and more family friendly activities, all located by the Akasaka Recreation Centre in Grande Cache. Tickets for Saturday and Sunday Killer Concerts will go on sale May Long Weekend and will be available at the Tourism & Interpretive Centre, Akasaka Recreation Centre, and the Town Administration Office, or over the phone at 1-866-827-3790.
